RES

If there is a man born with a silver spoon in his mouth, Charles was born with a pencil and paper on each hand. A seasoned design professional with over ten years of experience under his belt, he enjoys old jazz music with coffee while working on artworks for a new OC client at midnight. His goal is to win a major international award for the agency he works for and create a dent in the international advertising industry. As quoted from a client: "An award waiting to happen."
